

Steven Naugle

Treasurer and CFO

Mr. Steven Naugle is the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for the Association of Prosecuting Attorneys (APA). He is responsible for maintaining and handling all accounting for APA's expenses and grant management activities. The CFO also acts as APA's Treasurer and is responsible for internal administrative functions and controls. Mr. Naugle will ensure APA's accountability and transparency of all funds maintaining federal grant compliance for tracking, accounting, and reporting purposes.

Mr. Naugle is a result driven professional with over sixteen years of experience in accounting, financing, budgeting, management and auditing for entertainment, non-profit, governmental, small business and financial organizations. He has held positions that include working as a CFO/Controller for an international entertainment company and two statewide non-profit organizations and as an Audit Manager for two top regional CPA firms with 'Big 4' clients.

While joining APA, Mr. Naugle is the CFO for Megatrax Production Music, Inc. in which he lead a seven person team overseeing financial reporting, accounting, human resources, treasury, tax, risk management, budgeting, shipping/operations, contract management, capital assets, audit coordination, and office operations. Mr. Naugle possesses the requisite skills necessary to operate as the CFO of APA, a national non-profit organization. Prior to joining APA, he was the CFO for the California

District Attorneys Association (CDAA) from July 1999 to October 2003. At CDAA, Mr. Naugle lead a ten person team overseeing the financial management and administrative operations of a statewide non-profit 501(c)6 corporation employing approximately fifty people with an annual budget of $5 million. Responsibilities include financial reporting and analysis, fund accounting, budgeting, grant/contract oversight/development, human resources, treasury, risk management, affiliated 501(c)3 oversight, audit coordination (including Single Audit) and office operations.

Mr. Naugle has been the Controller for the League of California Cities, where he oversight a three person department responsible for the accounting, budgeting, financial reporting and analysis of a sixty person non-profit/governmental type organization with an $8 million budget. Managed the accounting/reporting for eight affiliated 501(c)3 and 501(c)6 non-profits.

Mr. Steven Naugle is a proud member of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPAs).
