 Yes No

Comments: The physical space was not ideal. It was incredibly warm in the space. During the first presentation I never saw the presenter b/c he was blocked by pillars. The conference needs signs outside & inside to direct people where to go.

How would you rate the quality of the presentations?

1

Very Poor

2

3

4

5

Excellent

Question #2

What topics would you like to see at future regional conferences?

1. More neglected issues.
2. some positive presentations to give us hope for people, programs that are making a difference in lives of children + families.
3. lots of this subject matter was depressing. This is reality, but, should not be the whole focus.

Question #3

Comments: I have a lot of respect for the people who work in this field - unsung heroes. Also I recommend bringing in more diverse presenters to reflect the people we actually serve. We should address the high numbers of Native Americans and other people of color in criminal justice systems. Then, look at programs that are making a difference and helping to change/help people in a good way.

Question #5

Would you recommend this conference to others?

Yes

No

Comments: 1) Signage was poor in trying to find conference room - a map would have been helpful, especially from hotel with sky walks 2) Room was scorching hot every morning - no air flow 3) Videos wouldn't play during presentations - needed someone tech savvy to assist 4) would have been nice to know breakfast was going to be offered

Overall, good conference - <sup>just</sup> need to take above in consideration, especially for people <sup>not</sup> coming from out of state -

Comments: My only real criticism is the location of St. Paul.
Getting a flight was not easy & I had to leave early to get the last flight out. And the city itself was disappointing. It seemed almost abandoned.
